

The twelve

Don't fight the light
But wait 'till night

When life seems raw
Study the law

When sky looks grey
Not cry all day

When things feel cold
Shall stop to hold

When you can't fit
Become spirit

When choice's too hot
Deep breathe a lot

When wind gives balm
Enjoy the calm

When missing bliss
Inside find peace

When comes the beat
Jump on your feet

When you've lost crew
Spread love as two

When life's sweet fool
Fill in your soul

Grow with the flow
And you will glow.
